ORDER

LEWIS A. KAPLAN, District Judge.

Plaintiff moves for reconsideration of the Court's order granting defendant's unopposed motion to dismiss.¹ "[R]econsideration will generally be denied unless the moving party can point to controlling decisions or data that the court overlooked."² But "[t]he purpose of a motion for reconsideration is . . . not to seek a different outcome on the basis of an argument that was not made in the first place."³ This is precisely what plaintiff attempts to do in her memorandum in support of her motion.

Accordingly, the motion for reconsideration is denied. Plaintiff remains free to file a timely motion for leave to amend the complaint.

SO ORDERED.
